CME INFORMATION:

Anticipated CME Credits: 22.5 AOA 1A CMEs for Live Attendance / 19.5 AOA 1A CMEs for Virtual Attendance

The MOA is accredited by the American Osteopathic Association to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The MOA designates this program for a maximum of 22.5 AOA Category 1-A credits (final credit determination TBA) and will report CME and specialty credits commensurate with the extent of the physician's participation in this activity.

Additional CME credit types are anticipated. Applications for other types of CME credit will be filed.

EVENT POLICIES:

Symposium Theme: Our theme for this year's symposium is "The Building Blocks of Healthcare" with a focus on (but not limited to) social determinants of health. Presenters have been asked to address their topics with this lens in mind.

DISCLOSURE AND CONFLICT OF INTEREST RESOLUTION:

All conflicts of interest of any individual(s) in a position to control the content of this CME activity will be identified and resolved prior to this educational activity being provided. Disclosure about provider and faculty relationships, or the lack thereof, will be provided to learners.

Certificate of Attendance: To claim CME and access your CME certificate, attendees will need to complete an evaluation for each session attended in person or online via the virtual conference platform.

Disclaimer: The information in this educational activity is provided for general medical education purposes only and is not meant to substitute for the independent medical judgment of a physician relative to diagnostic and treatment options of a specific patient's medical condition. The viewpoints expressed in this CME activity are those of the authors/faculty. They do not represent an endorsement by the MOA. In no event will the MOA be liable for any decision made or action taken in reliance upon the information provided through this CME activity. This event may be supported by independent educational grants from commercial interests. Complete information will be provided to participants prior to the activity. Conflict of Interest Disclosures for individuals in control of content will be provided prior to the start of the activity.

MOA Grievance Policy: All grievances should be initially directed in writing to the MOA Director by email to: info@mainedo.org who will share them with the MOA's Program Committee. Grievances will receive a response within 30 days of receipt. If you do not receive a satisfactory response, you may notify the Council of Continuing Medical Education, AOA, 142 East Ontario St., Chicago, IL 60611.

Hybrid Conference Details: This conference will be held in person February 9-11th, 2024 with additional online, on demand content available via a virtual platform. Some content may be available in person only and will be clearly advertised as such. Access to in person session recordings will be made available post-event for all attendees and continue until March 15th, 2024. In person CME content will be livestreamed for virtual participation.

Registration Procedure: To register for the conference, complete the registration form and return it to the MOA office: P.O. Box 315, Manchester, ME 04351 with the proper registration fee. Registration may also be completed online at www.mainedo.org or the form may be faxed if paying by credit card to 207-623-4228.
